Parrott Foundation Gives The Gift of ‘Compassion and Care’ Again This Holiday Season

The John M. & Bernice Parrott Foundation has given the ‘gift of compassion and care’ again this holiday season thanks to its most recent contribution to Hospice Quinte and the Heart & Home Building Campaign. The Foundation presented Hospice Quinte with an incredible $215K donation, with $200K of that being designated to our capital campaign in support of the future Hospice Quinte Care Centre, and the remaining $15K earmarked to help with general operations.

“The remarkable support we have received from The Parrott Foundation reminds us what the ‘Season of Giving’ is all about,” says Hospice Quinte Executive Director, Jennifer May-Anderson. “This generous donation brings us closer to our $9.5M capital campaign goal and also helps our organization off-set general funding losses experienced this year as a result of the pandemic.” “Traditional funding sources such as our annual Gala event, corporate grants and memorial donations have been impacted by the fallout of COVID-19,” adds May-Anderson. “Making this significant and thoughtful gift by The Parrott Foundation all the more appreciated.”

This is the second contribution The Parrott Foundation has made to Hospice Quinte’s Heart & Home Building Campaign. The first, a $250K donation, was made in the early days of the campaign, in December 2018, for a total contribution to date of $465K.

Thank you to the incredible staff of Weaver Family Funeral Homes in Quinte West for getting into the holiday spirit and helping Hospice Quinte #MakeItHappen with a generous $2,500 donation to the Heart & Home Building Campaign.

Traditionally at Weaver's annual Holiday Remembrance Service attendees receive a small token of appreciation. This year, with the Holiday Remembrance Service being held virtually, the compassionate and community-minded team at Weaver chose to donate funds previously allocated for the event to the Heart & Home Building Campaign.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your support, generosity and for helping us care for the changing lives of Quinte. Not only does your contribution bring us one step closer to meeting our fundraising goal, but also to providing higher end of life care closer to home.
